

Go Back

Kiesza

Who steals the magic
From the child when
The winds of time arrive
Torn from the dream
Behind those eyes
That were once
So full of life
Who then decided
That a heart must be broken to survive
Go back
Go back
Go back
Go back in time

Darkness is born
Inside a void we create
To feel alive
Once were together
We must break
If we wanna see the light
Drawn to the poison
That we chase though we never do arrive
Go back
Go back
Go back
Don't run out of time
Go back
Go back
Go back
Don't run out of time

Go go back
Go back go back
Go go back
Go go back

Go go back
Go back go back
Go go back
Go go back

Go go back
Go back go back
Go go back
Go go back

Go go back
Go back go back
Go go back
Go go back

Who made believe
This was a race and we were all born in line
Clawing our way without a trace
Of a thing we call a life
Once we get lost inside the maze
We are hard to ever find

Go back
Go back
Go back
Stop wasting your time

Let go of everything you think might be something it's a lie
Follow your footprints through the wake of the wreckage you survived
Deep in the center there's a place that you never leave behind
Go back
Go back
Go back
You always have time
Go back
Go back
Go back
Don't run out of time

Go go back
Go back go back
Go go back
Go go back

Go go back
Go back go back
Go go back
Go go back

Go go back
Go back go back
Go go back
Go go back

Go go back
Go back go back
Go go back
Go back
Go back
Go back
