

Hello Shadow

Kiesza

I am the shape of your whisper, I am
The whisper of a good man
Filling the space where light goes missing
That I will
Missing where the mad went

I don't miss my body, atleast not what I am
I'm a shadow but far from another [?]
At least you don't forget the whispers in my head
I have done what no man shadow can

Will you follow me good man
Will you follow me-e good man?
Will you follow me good man
Will you follow me-e good man?
Will you come down as I was?
Be as I am?
Follow me as you are
But I will say

Hello shadow (Did you, did you fall?)
(Did you, did you, did you fall?)
Hello shadow (Did you, did you fall?)
(Did you, did you, did you fall?)
Hello
Hello
Hello

I am the face of a thousand trees
I don't want kingdoms and kings
Now I am back from all my travels, you'll see
To be what you are to me

I don't miss my body, atleast not what I am
I'm a shadow but far from another [?]
At least you don't forget the whispers in my head
I have done what no man shadow can

Will you follow me good man
Will you follow me-e good man? (come on)
Will you follow me good man
Will you follow me-e good man?
Will you come down as I was?
B as I am
Follow me as you are
But I will say

Hello shadow (Did you, did you fall?)
(Did you, did you, did you fall?)
Hello shadow (Did you, did you fall?)
(Did you, did you, did you fall?)
Hello shadow (Did you, did you fall?)
(Did you, did you, did you fall?)
Hello shadow (Did you, did you fall?)
(Did you, did you, did you fall?)
