

You're moving like a serpent to the music
'Til my heartbeat meets your Body
Any moment I could lose it, yeah
You are a monster
In your bite I'm such a goner
You're a beast, that's why I want you
My defeat would be an honour, yeah

If I let you take control
Will you let me take you whole
'Cause my weakness is in you somehow
If I give into you now
Promise you'll keep me around
Once I'll let you in
I know you'll chain me down

I'm a passenger
Dancing on something in your eyes
Dancing on something in your eyes
Don't feel human
I'm a passenger
Dancing on something in your eyes
Dancing on something in your eyes
Don't feel human
This love is a mutant

You're a creature
No love could ever beat you
My desire just wants to eat you
It's a secret why I need you, oh
Freak of nature
My soul just wants to hate you
But I'm never going to change you
'Cause I'm perfect in your danger, oh

If I let you take control
Will you let me take you whole?
'Cause my weakness is in you somehow
If I give into you now
Promise you'll keep me around
Once I'll let you in
I know you'll chain me down

I'm a passenger
Dancing on something in your eyes
Dancing on something in your eyes
Don't feel human
I'm a passenger
Dancing on something in your eyes
Dancing on something in your eyes
Don't feel human
This love is a mutant
