

Slow Motion Fighting

Kiesza

When you look back
And slow down the motion
Pieces of shattered glass
Seem unbroken
Wounds that you could not bare
Seem to heal
Everything you believed
Wasn't real
When you pull back
And pause the memory
Even the strikes of grace like a ballet
Falls that you had to take
Weren't so far
Even the hits you made
Weren't so hard

Love becomes the sound
Of echoed memories
Things you should've said
Remain untold
Now it's in rewind
There's no pretending
There's no buying back
The time you sold

I'm slow motion fighting with you
Slow motion fighting now I'm
Slow motion fighting now I'm
Slow motion fighting now I'm

When you fall back and look for the meaning
Even the waves you took start receding
Storms that could level mountains are calm
Even the timeless rain wasn't long

Love becomes the sound
Of echoed memories
Things you should've said
Remain untold
Now it's in rewind
There's no pretending
There's no buying back
The time you sold and we're

Slow motion fighting with you
Slow motion fighting now we're
Slow motion fighting now we're
Slow motion fighting now we're

Keep keep losing the beat beat
Under the heat heat under your love
You know I keep keep losing my feet feet

You know I Keep keep losing my feet feet
Under the heat heat under your love

Under the heat heat under your love

Now I'm slow motion fighting now I'm
Slow motion fighting now I'm
Slow motion fighting now I'm

Slow motion fighting now I'm
