Bipolar

Kiiara

You like me mad, you think it's funny
I can't remember why we're fighting
Why these dishes are broken
Why I feel these emotions
Do you?
Do you?

I think we're past a million sorrys
But we made up after the party
That we do every time
Do it night after night
With you
With you

Tell me can we stay like, stay like this
Can we keep this up, d'you think?
Maybe it's no way, no way to live
But we're both okay with it

I guess our love's a little bipolar
I think that's what's making us closer
And when I hate you I really fuckin' hate you
So kiss me and remind me why I even started dating you
I guess our love's a little bipolar
Good news baby, is we're not over
When I love you I really fuckin' love you
So kiss me and remind me why I still can't get enough of you

For someone else, this is a nightmare
For someone else, too much to bear
But for us, this is Heaven
Wouldn't trade it for nothin'
Would you?
Would you?

Tell me can we stay like, stay like this
Can we keep this up, d'you think?
Maybe it's no way, no way to live
But we're both okay with it

I guess our love's a little bipolar
I think that's what's making us closer
And when I hate you I really fuckin' hate you
So kiss me and remind me why I even started dating you
I guess our love's a little bipolar
Good news, baby, is we're not over
When I love you I really fuckin' love you
So kiss me and remind me why I still can't get enough of you

I hate you and I love you
Can't get enough of you
When I lose my mind, it's you I run to It's you I run to

I guess our love's a little bipolar
I think that's what's making us closer
And when I hate you I really fuckin' hate you

So kiss me and remind me why I even started dating you
I guess our love's a little bipolar
Good news, baby, is we're not over
When I love you I really fuckin' love you
So kiss me and remind me why I still can't get enough of you
