

Don't Cry

Kiki Dee

Since you lived your life out in dreams
It's hard to read what's on your mind
Can't live your love or let it die
And you carry more than you're showing
Everybody wants to be a guiding light
Something's hurting you you feel inside

But it's hard to say
You can't let it die
So you let it lie
Till tomorrow comes
Whoa oh, don't cry
Doesn't have to be so
Sad

Think of what you're saying
Think of what you doing
You're tears are falling
Only you can feel it
Come inside and take the warm of my hand
There's a lot of heart left so call me

But it's hard to say
You can't let it die
So you let it lie
Till tomorrow comes
Whoa oh, don't cry
Doesn't have to be so
Sad

Whoa oh, it's goodbye
Doesn't have to be so
Sad
Don't cry
Whoa oh, don't cry
Don't cry
It doesn't have to be so
Sad
Don't cry
It doesn't have to be so
Sad
