

Here for All Time

Kiki Dee

Climbing the stairs I hear sounds from the room
Where he hides all alone thinking he is alone
Softly I'm turning the corner
The light sends a warning to me do not come closer dear

At the edge of the door listen tremblement sleep
To the weeping inside as he cried over me
I wonder in silence for me I'm only a child

Feeling the weight of the world I tip-toe away far away
I feel stronger than he Knights at round tables in battle would fight for the rights of a man
As I fought for him then

If I could I'd be there with a sword in my hand
Work it through work it out but I know that he loved me
That's all there is bless his loving here for all time

Down to the junkyard I ran for a world of my own
Take a drive in a car with no wheels
Watching my dreams through the window
As they hurry by where do they go why tell me why

Someone calls me inside and I'm out of my head
You should never have cried but I know that he loved me
That's all there is bless his loving here for all time
Yes, he loves me that's all there is bless his loving here for all time
