

Saviour

Kiki Dee

When you're making love tonight
With a feeling that everything's just not right
Take a look in his eyes and see
Are you there where you're meant to be

Later on when you're lying low
And you're wondering if you should just get up and go
Take a look in the mirror, that's free
Are you there do you care that's the key

He's looking for a saviour
Open your eyes to see
He's doing you no favour
You know it has to be
Let it go

On my island high and dry
I just threw it away, no more wondering why
I'm thinking 'bout the things unthought
Are you still smart if you sell yourself short
And I'm learning how to shed some tears
Over losing you as well as my friends
Everything's moving, loving or losing
Just go on proving ooh

He's looking for a saviour
Open your eyes to see
He's doing you no favour
You know it has to be
Let it go

When you're making love tonight
With a feeling that everything's just not right
Take a look in the mirror, that's free
Are you there do you care that's the key

Now I've found my saviour
Open your eyes to see
I'm doing myself a favour
You know it has to be
Now I've found my saviour
Open your eyes to see
You know it has to be
Open your eyes to see
Open your eyes to see
Open your eyes to see
Open your eyes to see
