Though Adam was a friend of mine, I did not know him well He was alone into his distance He was deep into his well

I could guess what he was laughing at, but I couldn't really te 11

Now the story's told that Adam jumped, but I've been thinking that he fell

Together we went traveling, as we received the call His destination India, and I had none at all Well, I still remember laughing with our backs against the wall So free of fear, we never thought that one of us might fall

I sit before my only candle, but it's so little light to find m y way

Now this story unfolds before my candle Which is shorter every hour as it reaches for the day But I feel just like a candle in the way I guess I'll get there, but I wouldn't say for sure

When we parted we were laughing still, as our goodbyes were sai

And I never heard from him again as each our lives we led Except for once in someone else's letter that I read Until I heard the sudden word that a friend of mine was dead

I sit before my only candle, like a pilgrim sits beside the way Now this journey appears before my candle
As a song that's growing fainter the harder that I play
That I fear before I am a fade away
But I guess I'll get there, though I wouldn't say for sure

Though Adam was a friend of mine, I did not know him long And when I stood myself beside him, I never though I was as strong

Still it seems he stopped his singing in the middle of his song Well I'm not the one to say I know, but I'm hoping he was wrong

I'm holding out my only candle, thou
