

You Won't See Me Crying

Kiki Dee

Take me to heart
Like you used to do
Come sit by my side
And tell me the truth

The line that we crossed
Is too fine to see
None of us knows when it happens
Love has no guarantees

So I declare
I'll be the only one again
And you won't see me crying
No more when you're gone
I'll be the only one
But you won't see me crying
Alone from now on

She's holding you now
Like I used to do
I turn the pages over
Far away from you

I know how it feels
When freedom is born
Time is a faithful healer
When hearts are ripped and torn

I, I declare
I'll be the only one again
And you won't see me crying
No more when you're gone
I'll be the only one
But you won't see me crying
Alone from now on
You won't see me crying
Alone when you're gone

I'll be the only one again
Yes, I will
I'll be the only one again
I'll be the only one again
You won't see me crying
No more
You won't see me crying
You won't see me crying
