On this ambitious night
Why are you worrying about that?
I'm just asking, why are you taking it the wrong way?
For this to end as a TV drama
That moon is too bright
So I just wanna talk about you
And me yeah

Above the night sky, with a hoarse voice
All night, we're heating up the phone that was cold, oh no

We're riding on top of time
That passes quickly
Though we don't say much
Am I crazy?
Yeah maybe

What is it? What is it about you?
You're not that pretty
But my eyes keep going to you
You're bothering me
I'm getting dizzy, help me
It's getting darker outside
Don't you want my love?
Only the sound of the clock ticking gets louder

Stop right there, come to me
That's enough, now come to me
Oh baby, come to me
Come across this night and come to me

Oh baby
Like the moon, my heart is tilting
I ran out of things to say
Silence fills up the space all night
I waited for this day
But when I'm in front of you
Why do I feel so small?
Oh why

Endlessly pacing back and forth on this street
All night, heating up our hands that were cold, oh no

To just go back home
Like yesterday and the day before
I'm so crazy
Yeah maybe

What is it? What is it about you?
You're not that pretty
But my eyes keep going to you
You're bothering me
I'm getting dizzy, help me
It's getting darker outside
Don't you want my love?
Only the sound of the clock ticking gets louder

You and me
There is no conclusion
But when I see you
I feel like I know everything
I'm struggling too, help me
Oh let me into your heart
Only the sound of the clock ticking gets louder

Right at that moment, come to me
Come over to my side, come to me
What should I do baby
Come to me
Into my heart
Come to me
