

Overcome

Kiley Dean

How'd I get here, I don't know
Never knew that life could hurt so bad
Never knew that I could feel so low
And what should've been knock out blow
Might've got me down on my knees
But that's right where you met me
Cause

Even when I don't feel strong
Even when the road is long
I know that I belong in your love
Even when I feel left out
Even when I have my doubts
God, I know you see me

There's no fight or challenge
That You can't win
No break in my heart
That you can't mend
I don't need to worry
It's already been done
And every battle, You overcome

Overcome, overcome, overcome, You overcome

Now all I gotta do is lift my eyes
When my enemies are closing in
Even then I know you're right by my side
Your peace is my prize
And all I wanna do is breathe you in
Again and again

There's no fight or challenge
That You can't win
No break in my heart
That you can't mend
I don't need to worry
It's already been done
And every battle, You overcome

Overcome, overcome, overcome, Lord, You overcome
Overcome, overcome, overcome, Lord, You overcome

Even when I have my doubts

There's no fight or challenge
That You can't win
No break in my heart
That you can't mend
I don't need to worry
It's already been done
And every battle, You overcome

Overcome, overcome, overcome, Lord, You overcome
