

Do It Again

Kilians

You're hard to find, the truth is I never really tried
And this time it's not elusive, just catch your fist and smile

You are always in my bed, you are always in my bed.

And you do it again, you do it again.

So now you're blind, you use it, in fact, to face the time

And my mind is not elusive, it runs an endless light.
You are always in my bed, you are always in my bed.

And you do it again, you do it again.

You do it again, you toss your hair and you move
And you run 'till you're waste.

And you do it again, you do it again.

You do it again, you toss your hair and you move
And you run 'till you're waste.

You do it again, you toss your hair and you move
And you run 'till you're waste.
