

Start Again

Kilians

You say you'll leave this place when all your days fade
to gray,
You should start again.
'cause you're my favorite girl and I need you to come,
You're my favorite girl, I'm not asking for fun.
You're my favorite girl, you should start again.

We have our business, but we don't care a lot,
Unless you think, because we won't give a fuck,
Oh, what a shame, it's so hard to admit,
I'll start again, I'll start giving a shit.

You say you'll leave this place when all of your friends run away,
You should start again.
'cause you're my favorite girl and I need you to come,
You're my favorite girl, I'm not asking for fun.
You're my favorite girl, you should start again.

We have our business, but we don't care a lot,
Unless you think, because we won't give a fuck,
Oh, what a shame, it's so hard to admit,
I'll start again, I'll start giving a shit.

We have our business, but we don't care a lot,

Oh, what a shame, it's so hard to admit,
