

Fool For Loving You

Kill It Kid

I see your eyes wander unintentionally.
It's not your fault she's beautiful but what about me.
She seems like a nice person but I thought you left me.
I just can't control this raging jealousy
I'm scared you thought your love was true
And oneday you'll see you were.
A fool for loving me, fool for loving me, a fool for loving me.

You say I don't love you. You say I don't listen.
But with these accusing words
You've have given me every reason,
To lie, deceive, reap all the love I can steal.
Maybe you'll start believing when I tell you I am leaving.
I'm scared you thought your love was true
And oneday you'll see you were.
A fool for loving me, fool for loving me, a fool for loving me.

Playing the victim, nothing to deny.
To say I was looking girl is a God damn lie.
We've only been here an hour
And you couldn't stay sober could you.
As far as I'm concerned this relationship is over.

A fool for loving me, fool for loving me
A fool for loving me.
