Kill The Lights

Broken bones!

I wait here slowly dying
Killing my heart for nothing
My world will never be the same
I bathe in guilt and sadness
Shelter my eyes from madness
I mask these feelings of regret
I'm letting go but

Your dead inside but still alive
There's nothing left but broken bones
You're full of lies rotting inside
Broken bones!

I swallow all your embers
My burning heart surrenders
Show me we'll make it out alive
Those crooked thieves surprise you
Capture the man inside who
Wondered this world to hide his pain
I'm letting go but

Your dead inside but still alive
You're full of lies rotting inside
Broken bones!

Your dead inside but still alive
Your dead inside but still alive
You're full of lies rotting inside
Broken bones!
