

Die Alone

Kill The Lights

We hide in the dark
Pray for the night
Believe we are worthless
Abandoned by life
The world we know breaks down
Nothing can change us now
The candles burning
And dying on our own

Scream at the top of my lungs
Sinking like a stone
Abused, guilty of nothing but I've been disowned
I'm reaching, I'm hiding the shame
Show me there's something more
I'm bleeding out

I'm losing the battle
That sings in my head
Not worthy of breathing
I stand on the edge
There's nothing left to say
My mind has given up
I feel my lungs collapse
We're dying on our own

Scream at the top of my lungs
Sinking like a stone
Abused, guilty of nothing but I've been disowned
I'm reaching I'm hiding the shame
Show me there's something more
I'm bleeding out

There's nothing left but the blood on my hands
Sever the wounds

No more pain
No more faith
No more love
When the sickness has died

I scream at the top of my lungs
I'm Sinking like a stone
Abused, guilty of nothing but I've been disowned
I'm reaching, I'm hiding the shame
Show me there's something more
I'm bleeding out

Scream at the top of my lungs
I've been abused done nothing disowned
Sink like a stone
I'm hiding the shame
Show me there's something more
