

Drowning

Kill The Lights

Let's wipe away your tears
And cover you in gold
Just tell me you're the one
And galvanize your soul

I couldn't save you from yourself
The violence eats you whole
You're drowning on your own
But I can't bring you home
These waters are so cold
The waves break your resolve
My heart is letting go

Your here but no one's home
Pour water on the sun
Eroded all my faith
You're lost and can't be found
I'll tell you you're the one
And galvanize my soul

I couldn't save you from yourself
The violence eats you whole
You're drowning on your own
But I can't bring you home
These waters are so cold
The waves break your resolve
My heart is letting go

There's no tomorrow
Were born to die
Take all your pain
Throw it away
Floored from inside
Under your skin
Damaged within
Can't seem to survive

I couldn't save you from yourself
The violence eats you whole
You're drowning on your own
But I can't bring you home
These waters are so cold
The waves break your resolve
My heart is letting go

Let's wipe away your tears
And cover you in gold
