

From Ashes

Kill The Lights

I lost track of my regrets
Fighting but I know
What I'm holding is killing me
I need to let go

I raise my head up to the sky
I pray to God you're still alive
The broken pieces in my head
Can't take away the shame

Save me, I'm slowly breaking
Turning to ashes, watch as I fall apart
Broken, lonely and hopeless
I never wanted things to end like this

These fractured memories
Just won't let go of me
Maybe I'm not enough
To keep you from giving up

Save me, I'm slowly breaking
Turning to ashes, watch as I fall apart
Broken, lonely and hopeless
I never wanted things to end like this

I'm begging for mercy, you should know
It's killing me, it's killing me
I was never enough, just let me go

Save me, I'm slowly breaking
Turning to ashes, watch as I fall apart
Broken, lonely and hopeless
I never wanted things to end like this

Save me, I'm slowly breaking
Turning to ashes, watch as I fall apart
Broken, lonely and hopeless
I never wanted things to end like this
