

Hear You Scream

Kill The Lights

Helpless and stranded so lost from the start
Your victim I'm crushed as you take out my heart
Desolate, angry, I can't find the words
To tell you how lonely I am in this world

So bite your tongue and crack your teeth
Let's see you bleed instead of hear you speak
A phony love, a broken dream
So save your breath 'cause I won't hear you scream

Crawling and fighting my way off the ledge
Battered and bloody, I'll fight for revenge
There's nothing left to lose, this time you won't be excused (There's no excuse) You can't deny your lies

So bite your tongue and crack your teeth
Let's see you bleed instead of hear you speak
A phony love, a broken dream
So save your breath 'cause I won't hear you scream

It doesn't matter if you hate me or not
My world is burning down
Down

So bite your tongue and crack your teeth
Let's see you bleed instead of hear you speak
A phony love, a broken dream
So save your breath 'cause I won't hear you scream

I've seen your love, what lies beneath
This hollow crown, this is a devil's [?]
Your phony love, your broken dream
So save your breath 'cause I won't hear you scream

This world is bringing me down
Drown me in light
