

Rest

Kill The Lights

I turn the lights on
Your voice sings inside my head
Look in the mirror
I can't forget what I have lost
The nights remind me
Of the times we spent alone
Trapped in the wreckage
Of this lost and broken home

Burn my eyes, take away the pain
Tell me that I'm not alone here in this world
I'm slowly breaking
Take my hand, show me you're alive
Wash away the thoughts that echo in my mind
I'm far from home tonight

Look out the window
The rain drops wash away the stains
I'm barely breathing
Cold from sleeping with this pain
The scars remind me
That I'm broken and alone
Searching for someone
That can save me from myself

Burn my eyes, take away the pain
Tell me that I'm not alone here in this world
I'm slowly breaking
Take my hand, show me you're alive
Wash away the thoughts that echo in my mind
I'm far from home tonight

I'm crawling on my knees, waiting to explode tonight
I can't explain the feelings, take the voices from my head

Burn my eyes, take away the pain
Tell me that I'm not alone here in this world
I'm slowly breaking
Take my hand, show me you're alive
Wash away the thoughts that echo in my mind
I'm far from home tonight

Burn my eyes, take away the pain
Tell me that I'm not alone here in this world
I'm slowly breaking
Take my hand, show me you're alive
Wash away the thoughts that echo in my mind
I'm far from home tonight
