

Sober

Kill The Lights

You smother me inside your broken lies
I bury all the feelings deep inside
You push and pull my skin apart
Just an echo of the world that I have lost

Bury me in darkness

I hate myself when I'm sober
My voices battle inside my head tonight
Just let me sleep till it's over
I'd kill myself just to hide the hate inside

Burning out I'm fucking nothing

I'm ready to avenge your bleeding heart
With your ashes in my hand I feed the cross
Tell me this is just a dream
As I walk into the fires of destiny

I hate myself when I'm sober
My voices battle inside my head tonight
Just let me sleep till it's over
I'd kill myself just to hide the hate inside

Screaming out your name, I'm reaching out
Screaming out your name, I'm reaching out for your face
Screaming out your name, I'm reaching out for your face
Screaming out your name, I'm reaching out for your face

I hate myself when I'm sober
My voices battle inside my head tonight
Just let me sleep till it's over
I'd kill myself just to hide the hate inside

I hate myself when I'm sober
My voices battle inside my head tonight
Just let me sleep till it's over
I'd kill myself just to hide the hate inside
