

The Faceless

Kill The Lights

You rip me open
Watch me eat all your lies
Pull the trigger
Cos I've already died
My body's breaking
As I'm drowning in booze
I've got a fucked up reputation
And a bullet for you

I sit and watch in the shadows waiting
Never dreamed this would feel so right
I feel this nightmare is taking over
I'm getting sober and it burns my eyes

You watch me choking and I'm free for a moment
A taste of blood is all that's on my mind
My heart is racing and I feel like I'm broken
Another reason just to take your smile

You can tear me open
You can shut me up
But you will never take my life

I am the sickness inside you
I am the burden that you choose
I am the mirror in your head
I am the darkness, I am death

We march to the sound of a broken drum
We taste the dirt, we touch the sun
Our broken bones can't be ignored
We are the faceless, we are yours

My hands are sweating and I'm higher than Jesus
I wear these scars, I am paranoid
I take these pills so I can drown all my demons
Scream your name so I can kill the noise

You can tear me open
You can shut me up
But you will never take my life

We march to the sound of a broken drum
We taste the dirt, we touch the sun
Our broken bones can't be ignored
We are the faceless, we are yours

We march to the sound of a broken drum
We taste the dirt, we touch the sun
Our broken bones can't be ignored
We are the faceless, we are yours

We will not surrender
We will not hide

No one can save me
No one can save me

No one can save me now

We march to the sound of a broken drum
We taste the dirt, we touch the sun
Our broken bones can't be ignored
We are the faceless, we are yours

We march to the sound of a broken drum
We taste the dirt, we touch the sun
Our broken bones can't be ignored
We are the faceless, we are yours

We are the sickness
We are your pain
We are the future
Driving you insane
We are the sickness
We are your pain
We are the future
There's fucking no escape
