

Wasting Away

Kill The Lights

Sever all of the wounds
Smother all of their faces
Bleed out all of their lies
It's time to bring you down

I've fucking had enough
I'm sick of breathing
The clock is ticking
And we're close to breaking
The drugs are wearing off
We're going nowhere
I'm sick of faking
And were overrated

Sell me out and watch me wipe
Your blood with my hands
Feeding all the leeches as they crawl in your eyes
It doesn't matter if we make or not
It's just another day of walking even closer to god

Waking without the will to live
I never found the strength to carry on
Faking my way, I can't move on
The hatred consumes

I take my medicine
To try to kill the noise
My head is spinning and
I'm drowning slowly
How can sympathize
You fucking hypocrites
I see you laughing
With your mouth wide open

We're going down and taking everyone, we know
Our world is bleeding out

Waking without the will to live
I never found the strength to carry on
Faking my way in can't move on
The hatred consumes

The hatred consumes
My faith (my faith)
Your weapons of words betray (betray)
Betray

Waking without the will to live
I never found the strength to carry on
Faking my way I can't move on
The hatred consumes me
