

Countdown To Domination

Kill the Romance

I won't define my state of mind
It's all too straight for this blind sight
I am just here to take what's mine
No there's no reason to hold on Whatever comes too near i will pass it by
So far that no-one will know

Come on control

I'm on my knees would you tell me why
Am i a waste of your time no

Wake me up at night so i can scream and shout
Endless nightmares i dream of silence

Cold it shivers down my spine
It takes so long it will paralyze all what's left of me
Stone my eyes are dead as stone
No more a light that shines on me goodbye

I decide what's best for me
No that is me
What else should i then do
Whatta fuck

I think i've crossed the line
I know now i'm alive
I know i will begin my countdown to domination
