

Prey

Kill the Romance

For those who deliver their souls to the devil
May their death become as clear as your heaven
Who will judge you, who'll deceive you
The prise is repent so fucking consent

Fight fight for your life life
Where's your heretic soul where's your heretic aggression
Is nighttime your only lifetime
What the fuck is with you? Go figure...

Come on you holy sinner
Pathetic parasite

Take my hand and I'll lead you into my realm
No sympathy for weak
Nowhere to go nowhere to stay
I'll inhale this blood into me
Remember you're a prey for yourself

For immortal believers these virgin beginners
Where's the beauty of the lesson unlearned
Confess your crime, forget the lying truth inside
Rust in your own dreams admit your lies

Fight for life
Behind that paralyzed mind you keep saying you're right
Is there a way, is there a day
Where no-one's already been sent astray

Take my hand and I'll lead you into my realm
No sympathy for weak
Nowhere to go nowhere to stay
I'll inhale this blood into me
Remember you're a prey for yourself
I'll inhale this blood into me
Remember to pray for yourself

It's already there just fading away
Life sends all fairness to hell

[Solo]

Remember you're a pray
Remember to pray
Remember you're a pray for yourself
