

Trespasser

Kill the Romance

Welcome to my nightmare
At the end where gallows stand
Can you see all those pallid faces
I know those fuckers here for me
Before falling into madness
I saw it crystal cleaer
Blurry venomous ominous breath of the wicked lost souls of lies

Let me sing you a lullaby
Let me hear you sing along

The captain with commanding soul says no matter where you go
No matter where you dream might end you will never miss the fuc king show
What I see is never loosing it's form yet impossible to see
Time is standing very still Something's staring at my back.

Forget of the toture I obey
The one trespasser's fooling me
A quite a ride unwary ride
And now it's killing time
It's time to die
The one old bastard's using me
I've seen this all before

Tresspasser

The choices of the clearing at the end of the path grow dim
The darkest dungeon of magician awaits
No mercy's here by my side
Delusion of deliverance is beginning to fade away
The serpent, the servants, the funeral's here
They're all ready to dig my grave

Forget of the torture I obey
The one trespasser's fooling me
A quite a ride unwary ride
And now it's killing time
It's time to die
The one old bastard's using me
I've seen this all before.
