Kill Your Idols

You're living the good old days right now , enjoy them while yo u can.
Tomorrow is finally here, so don't look back but never forget.
So here we go again, it's like a ride, that never ends.
when its over will we still be friends?
Spinning faster round and round,
confusion sets in, brings me down.
Old friends going different ways,
I hope tomorrow brings better days.
Times change every day, are we willing to be part of the change
So fast that I can't see, all things being offered to me.
So here we go again, it's like a ride, that never ends.
When it's over will we still be friends?
You're living the good old days right now, enjoy them while you can.
Tomorrow is finally here, so don't look back, but never forget.
