

Ritual

Killah Priest

I'm the witch finder
Nobles of the north star
The [?]
The winter wizard
She used kundalini to try to kill me
Her kind heart kissed me deadly
On Angel Avenue up Nightmare Valley
During the gods' rally
I pronounce paragraphs proudly
Jewels in my head, you gotta imaginante tools to find 'em
You're terrified of my tangerine-colored tigers
The [?] will stalk ghosts
I drove my car out of sleep to daydreaming
I was just staring
Wield myself into existence

I nearly drove myself to the brink of insanity
My gears shift, I'm at the cliff 'cause I know the ledge 'cause it's all in my head
Man with the key plead insanity
I got out my mental card and walked close to the edge then jump ed right into another subject
Above, the sky's black, the moon's fat, that's gluttonous
Then I look down at the ground, it's all red like the walls, th at's a blood fest
What do you know? It looks like the vampire fairy was here
