

Waterfall

Killah Priest

No one and nothing seems able to stop him
Invincible, invulnerable

The house of reptilians

The United Snakes Congress had a conference with the blonde prince and his team of Elohim beings in the upper kingdom of celestial lights with these devil-like queens

Black, purple and green

Sexual type

Agreeables and disagreeable

Peaceful

Question: what is evil?

I am your twin flame

We form the yin and yang

She had the fork tongue with the biggest fangs

I pulled the arrow, man turned bull, an animal, Taurus that lived in the forest now appeared in the orbits

As I recall it, there was a stampede

But I was good 'cause I'm Comanche

Coordination with eye and hand speed

Beneath the sky of twelve families

We sat down and ate the lamb, Aries

The son of man from the house on the [?]

The holy water came from a spout since the drought

It was doused on top of the dry bones that were buried

Behold the beast that's lying down was a Leo

The heart shocker replaced for the ego

Ta da, wah la, I came from space for the people

In the image of the invisible all

Then the fall, near fall

At our birth we are fire

At our death we are waterfalls

No one and nothing seems able to stop him
