Killer Be Killed

"Adventure for a girl and sister in New York City
Life changed forever, open mind, open soul
Hoping for life changed forever."

(Call the wild)

They are fearless in the eyes
Run around with no empathy for you
You're just a child, lost in the dark
Strangers drinking in the sand-city

Call the wild
Rule the mind
Enter strange future visions

In remembered dreams, I swam in starlight
Waking up from sleep, I ran inside my visions

Real life issues will arise
You're non-expressive when your mind is blank
I will bid good luck to you
All truths are filtered through your blood

Call the wild
Rule the mind
Enter strange future visions

In remembered dreams, I swam in starlight
Waking up from sleep, I ran inside my visions

The air is thick of privilege
Can not express an emotion
Inner vision

Save the robots

Replicants

In remembered dreams, I swam in starlight
Waking up from sleep, I ran inside my visions

The air is thick of privilege
