

Big Buzz

Killing Joke

Walking on familiar ground reduced to tears
Remember friends and faces
Passing of the years
All those who shared with us
The ordeals and the pain
Hearts of gold walk down golden lanes

Big buzz, big buzz
On a high
Big buzz, big buzz
And I'm alive

Smiling faces of those who always care
All the good people
They're always there
Follow your dream and you'll go far
Every man and woman is a star

Still laughing after all these years...

Big buzz, big buzz
On a high
Big buzz, big buzz
And I'm alive

A time for gratitude, a time to thrill
Another chapter
A fresh breeze blowing in
Voices of ancestors
Cheering us on
Never stopping
Until the race is won

Big buzz, big buzz
On a high
Big buzz, big buzz
And I'm alive

Still laughing after all these years
Tears of laughter, tears of pride
Big buzz, big buzz
On a high
Big buzz, big buzz
And I'm alive
