Our Last Goodbye

Killing Joke

Only five other countries are known to have executed juvenile offenders in the 1990s: Pakistan, Saudi Arabia, Iran, Nigeria, and Yemen. The US has executed more juvenile criminals than all of them combined, and is the only one known to have put any to death since 1997. There's so much to say And so little time I'd like to say thank you For the moments we shared They open the blinds I look through the window Look into my eyes And never let go And in the moment before you take your last breath Catch my eye When you know it's your last embrace Then we'll say our last goodbyes And in the moment before you take your last breath Catch my eye When you know it's your last embrace Then we'll say our last goodbyes There's so much that you don't say There is so much that you don't tell I never told you how much I felt Now I give you the full truth Think only the best of me Think only the best of me There's only one thing you should know Love is sweeter than death And in the moment before you take your last breath Catch my eye When you know it's your last embrace Then we'll say our last goodbyes And in the moment before you take your last breath Catch my eye When you know it's your last embrace Then we'll say our last goodbyes In 1997 the USA carried out seventy four executions, the highest number for four decades. Only China, Saudi Arabia, and Iran were known to have executed more prisoners. There's so much to say And so little time I'd like to say thank you For the moments we shared They open the blinds I look through the window There's only one thing you should know Love is sweeter than death And in the moment before you take your last breath Catch my eye When you know it's your last embrace Then we'll say our last goodbyes And in the moment before you take your last breath Catch my eye When you know it's your last embrace

Then we'll say our last goodbyes
