

Forever Aligned

Killswitch Engage

Wander through this desolation, the emptiness inside
The venom of this isolation begins to claim its prize
A part of me only you could see
To save this wretched wounded man from all consuming grief

Breathing a new vitality
Give me a place to rest
Connecting the deepest depths of me
Now my tongue must confess

It's you I find
Forever in my mind
We are aligned inside
Forever in my mind
We are aligned

When my breath begins to tremble, swallowed by this dread
I feed me to the wolves that linger in the shadows of my head
Find a pain in me, it will bleed eventually
Face to face with what must change
Killing this deceit

Pull me
Pull me from the depths
Save me
Save me from defeat
Deliver me a revelation to find a new
A new belief

It's you I find
Forever in my mind
We are aligned inside
Forever in my mind

All you can see eternally
Connection of spirit and what's in between this life
I find forever in my mind

Calculating divinity to understand the spirit unseen
Now we are aligned
We are aligned

And it's you I find forever in my mind
We are aligned inside
Forever
We are aligned
We are aligned
We are aligned
We are aligned
