

Replicate to Survive

Killwhitneydead

Beautiful people at every turn
Daddy's little whores with money to burn
Your single worth is your vanity
Traded in circles like commodities
Parasites sucking you dry
Parasites

One of a million
Cloning revealed - failed design
Mirrors reflecting
Misery that you hide

The misery that you bury so deep down inside will eat you alive

Posture and pose
Who you are - nobody knows

One of a million
Cloning reveals - failed design
Mirrors reflecting
Misery that you hide
Millions of a kind
Replicate simply to survive

Parasite
Bleeding it dry
Replicate
Simply to survive

Your imitation breeding failure
