

Stop Crying Just Start Dying

Killwhitneydead

ymptoms rise beneath the static something impulsive becoming habit smile through my teeth gaze upon (fear) this animal underneath know how your screams they excite me and how your pain it ignites me I'll squeeze the blood from your veins I'll drain the life until nothing remains I told you once, don't want to tell you again it will be too late you'll be fucking dead don't bother to leave on a light you won't be making it home tonight said it once, I'll say it again I fucking love (live for) getting even I brought my noose give me that neck and we'll see just how far it can stretch
