

White Trash but Worth Every Cent

Killwhitneydead

never thought that I could let you make me believe but I did it anyway never thought that you could sit there and bathe in deceit and you did it anyway if I could take it back every word and dollar spent everything I said to you was exactly what I meant all the flowers I bought are starting to wilt won't see me shed a tear over blood that I've spilled never shed a tear over blood spilled but it won't matter if they're dead or alive it doesn't matter to me if you live or die you said you always wanted flowers so I brought you flowers for your grave
