

Evil Eye

KILLY

It would be a lie if I said I'm fine
How come a peace of mind is so hard to find?
This will be the night that our souls align
Pray all the evil eyes in my life go blind
Lately I been doin' all
I been rightin' wrongs, back against the wall
All the evil eyes in my life go blind
Pray all the evil eyes in my life go blind

Go off this, phase off the exhaust shit
Often, yeah, do this often
I'm ballin', they don't like the way I'm ballin'
Ballin', all in, ballin', ballin'
I got two hoes, two phones, can't keep callin'
Noodles, noodles and some lobster
Ridin', ridin', the horizon
I'm ridin', I'm ridin'
Saint Laurent my collar, three thousand a concert
I was so bothered, now I'm just a baller
I'm a shot caller, I'm a hog holder
While you take a picture I'ma just control her
I can spend like ten racks, keep that shit as usual
No, I cannot love you back, that feeling is not mutual
I can spend like ten racks, this shit be so usual
No, I cannot love you back, that feeling is not mutual

It would be a lie if I said I'm fine
How come a peace of mind is so hard to find?
This will be the night that our souls align
Pray all the evil eyes in my life go blind
Lately I been doin' all
I been rightin' wrongs, back against the wall
All the evil eyes in my life go blind
Pray all the evil eyes in my life go blind

Lately I been rightin' wrongs
Rightin' wrongs, I been rightin' wrongs
Lately I been rightin' wrongs
Rightin' wrongs, back against the wall
