

Interlude

KILLY

Just stay away
Woke up, 'nother day with the world in my palm
Rockin' all my chains, I don't wanna take 'em off
When you hit the grave, you can't wear that shit at all
Throw me a parade and just hold me in your thoughts (Thoughts)
Won't take it, I can't escape it, I can't escape it, no
No, no, no (No)

I need all and every, I need all and any Want it all, I want it all, I want it for forevery
I need all and any, needed all and every
Want it all, I want it all, I want it, four-four hefty
My girl she a menace, take the O forever
Throwin' up confetti, but I always remember
Put my fuckin' all in it, evil keep on following
Judges, they're so bottomless

Just stay away
Woke up, 'nother day with the world in my palm
Rockin' all my chains, I don't wanna take 'em off
When you hit the grave, you can't wear that shit at all
Throw me a parade and just hold me in your thoughts (Thoughts)
Won't take it, I can't escape it, I can't escape it, no
No, no, no (No)

Water on my face, fire on my waist
They wanna play, but I really come to play
Don't do this for the fame, I do this for the change
These hoes, I can't touch, can you try to move adjacent?
Need somethin' to drain it, fuck bitches, never make it
They [?] their true colors, ain't see every debate it
Yeah, same, same destination
Same
