

Never Let Up

KILLY

Ayy, ayy, ayy, ayy
Hey, hey, hey, hey
Ayy ayy ayy, ayy ayy ayy, ayy ayy ayy, ayy

Never let up, 'cause they don't know more
Don't show love, I don't know who to trust
I swear I can never let up
I can never let up

So what you tellin' me, from friend to enemy
They might envy me, but they won't rest in peace
How you hate on me, I don't think of you
Dream about the guap, collect the revenue
I want a better you, I want a better me, huh
When I walk in room, huh, like a veteran, hey
K-I-double-L, I was just nineteen
I feel like 21, ball like twenty-three
Young boy, city dreams
So many mini mes
K-I-double-L, your favorite remedy
Every day I dream, when I walk to school
I'm in that limousine, Giuseppes down to feet
I got some tricks up my sleeve
I flex but never for free
Diamonds, they dance all on me
Too many despising me
This not no surprise to me
No you can't see what I see
Kill boy, I'm chasing the G's
Switch sides, I'm pressing delete
On my iPhone, got my opps on the screen
Bad redbone, she never want to leave (never)
Live a rockstar lifestyle, rips in the jeans
My rockstar lifestyle, rips in these jeans

Never let up, 'cause they don't know more
Don't show love, I don't know who to trust
I swear I can never let up
I can never let up
