Chandelier, dinner table, white wine
Shawty fell in love with the lime light
Smokin' cookie okie, I'ma take flight
Waistline, BB singles buckle got a super shine
I come from the north, I'm still a super slime
Beat the pussy up like it's a Budokai
Suicide doors goin' do-or-die
Fast life catching up don't look behind
Shawty think we clear cause the horoscope
Let her know I ain't him and aren't one of those
Lately drop in the antidote
I smoke strong, you smokin' charcoal
That's not the plug, that's a narco
Racks every other week comin' in cargo
Fast life a little harmful, but I'ma live forever fuck a downfall

The simulation, devil on my back and the evil follow me
Born alone, die alone please don't bother me
I'm trying to buy my soul, they wanna bother me
If it's not them then its foggy, or probably what they putting in the water
Everywhere I look is a desire
The simulation doesn't offer silence
Go walking out the Louis store stomping
Bought the whole the floor, little guilt through my conscience
If the fake fall away cause the toxins
Had twist a lot of twisted causes
All of these new faces so exhausted
I can see your whole fate in these pride to optics
Treasuring all blessings, never loses
Put some out for my guys, don' forgot it
