

Alive

Kilo Kish

The, the, the only one
The, the only one
The, the only one

You can say goodbye
I don't care
You're not
The only one
You're my, my only
Chance at this
So Dance with me

You can say goodbye
I wouldn't really care
Do they say
I've gone crazy?

Ooh ooh ooh

I fight for you
First on the line for you
I stick around for you

I fight, I spit
Never said I was right
So good at giving in
Good with goodbye

I soak my leather skin
Suck in my pride
And I find, I find it
Find it to die for you
Blacken my eye for you
Curve in my spine for one

The, My only
Chance at this
Dance with me

You have what you always want-
Always wanted
I have what I always want-
Always wanted now
You have what you always want
Gold and bronzes
I have what I always want
Shake hell 'til I fall apart

Fall apart
Oh oh oh
'Cause its a fight baby
You want a prize?

Fall apart
Oh oh oh
Cause its a fight baby
You win a prize baby

Afterword:

I don't get it
'Course you get it
I could make it
Will they get it?
'Cause their attention
Is like A nanosecond
And I can't blink twice
Without re-assessing something
Its like a glaze in your eye
I do not compute as human
I wave one hand over eye
Ay, Are you immune or something?
Is it a leak or something?
Inside your brain is what thing?
Are you alive or something?
Are you a lie or something?
Are you a lie or something?
