

Begin Route

Kilo Kish

Out here trying to find
Its like that one space
That you can't get to
You're going in one direction
And its like
You just end up stopping and starting
Backpedaling and shit
Its just one of those things
And there's this moment where
You look up and you're like
I got it
Where you plant your feet into the ground
And you say
I'm ok
I'm okay here
I'm ok
I don't know
I just want
Where you can hear yourself breathe
Alone or not alone
And everything's okay
I just want to be here
I don't know what I want
