

BOTH SIDES

Kilo Kish

I gave you who I am
Like you could understand
This life is sweet as lemon
Do we ever wake up?

Hoping, hoping
I found some part of you
Sick of this mystery
Hoping, hoping
Closing that box
Simple history

One more glass then and never after
I can only laugh at just my reaction
One more dance in this broken palace
I can only be so hopeless

What is wrong, wrong with ya?
You tear it all down, forget ya
It seems to me, we burn a bridge every time
Both sides
What is wrong, wrong with ya?
You tear it all down, forget ya
It seems to me, we burn a bridge every time
Both sides

Fantasies can't agree
We can't kill the questioning
Pretty please on a leash
Will we ever get free?

Hoping, hoping
I found some part of you
Sick of this mystery
Hoping, hoping
Closing that box
Into history

One more glass then I find the exit
I can only laugh at just my reaction
One more dance and the world is ending
I can only be so hopeless

What is wrong, wrong with ya?
You tear it all down, forget ya
It seems to me, we burn a bridge every time
Both sides
What is wrong, wrong with ya?
You tear it all down, forget ya
It seems to me, we burn a bridge every time
Both sides

When you met me (ha, ha)
What you didn't see (ha, ha)
It's the one thing (ha, ha)
I commit to break (ha, ha)
When you met me (ha, ha)

All you didn't see (ha, ha)
You're the one thing (ha, ha)
I commit to break (ha, ha)

No more glasses, I want to smash them
I can only laugh at your non reaction
No more dancing, can hardly stand it
I can only be so hopeless

What is wrong, wrong with ya?
You tear it all down, forget ya
It seems to me, we burn a bridge every time
Both sides
What is wrong, wrong with ya?
We never back down, forget ya
It seems to me, we burn a bridge every time
Both sides
