

Always after the Emotionally screwed
Maybe actually
Unavailable too
Some love triangle
For matter of a fact, dude
I can't pin him down
I can't make him move, move
But if we were close enough
I would make a move, move
Love to waste my time
Love a rendezvous, too

All night cast the shadow
Push and pull, pull
Caught the side of you
Now I'm uncomfortable, too
How can I like
Break this down to you
I don't want the second choice
You call that you screw
If you could buckle up
I'll let you sit up in the front
Guess you're nice enough
I could try it for the month
How can I like
Break this down to you
I can build them up
I can break them down, too
I can break them down, too

Don't call me up
I'm not your love, love
I'm not your love
I'm not your love, love

It was not my mission
To have an extra reason
To obsess over the careless
Nature of the male species
They make it look so easy
Stare right through my tv
You want to see me?
Bet you want to see me?
All our ghosts lost in these machines
I let the world keep streaming

Don't call me up
Don't call me up
Don't call me up
Don't call me up

Don't call me up
Don't call me up
Don't call me up
I'm not your love, love
I'm not your love
