Kilo Kish

Ok, great, I met the boy of my dreams
Kind of hard to touch you with a screen in between
Can I order you with the prime delivery
Kind of hard to love you with the sea in between Ok, now I feel in between Artificial lover, now I'm seen and not seen
We could fit together algorithmically
If I'm the one get lost in me

When you show me love
I don't see you
When you wanna talk
I don't hear you
When you hit me up
I don't feel you
I don't feel you
I don't feel you

I'm looking for some love
I don't see you
When you wanna talk
I don't hear you
When you hit me up
I don't feel you
I don't feel you
I don't feel you, no more

Skyscraping
Pain killing too
Shapeshifting
My mechanical heart beating for you
I'm pissed off
Boy, you got to chill
How'd it get so digital emotional

I am psychoanalytical
Pillowsoft and original
How did you nail the interview
Like, how did I get into you
I don't got the time to play play
I check the data I'm first place
I can override your instincts
If I'm the one get lost in me

When you show me love
I don't see you
When you wanna talk
I don't hear you
When you hit me up
I don't feel you
I don't feel you
I don't feel you

I'm looking for some love
I don't see you
When you wanna talk
I don't hear you

When you hit me up
I don't feel you
I don't feel you
I don't feel you, no more

Skyscraping
Pain killing too
Shapeshifting
My mechanical heart beating for you
I'm pissed off
Boy, you got to chill

Digital emotion
Don't love the program
System's overloading
Feel like I'm over it again
Emotion
Don't love the program
System's overloading
Feel like I'm over it again

Feel like I'm over it again
Feel like I'm over it again
Feel like I'm over it again
Feel like I'm over it again
Feel like I'm over it again
Feel like I'm over it again
Feel like I'm over it again
Again again again
