

DISTRACTIONS III: SPOILED ROTTEN

Kilo Kish

I could guess
The thoughts that circle your head
Don't we all want a glimpse?
Don't we all kill to make their list?
Present tense
In every quaint residence
Clutching to what was said
Nevermind to our own neglect

What will it take to satisfy?
Every single day to satisfy?
Kneel down pray to satisfy?
Satisfy-y-y

I've been spoiled rotten
Give me a glimpse and never again
I've been spoiled rotten
Give me a taste and never again
I've been spoiled rotten
Give me a glimpse and never again
I've been spoiled rotten
Gimme gimme gimme gimme...

I ain't shit
But I can pay to fix it
So exciting to be
In the shop of my fantasy
Present tense
In every posh residence
Sits a pearl in her shell
Batting lashes and wishing well

What will it take to satisfy?
Every single day to satisfy?
Kneel down pray to satisfy?
Satisfy-y-y

I've been spoiled rotten
Give me a glimpse and never again
I've been spoiled rotten
Give me a taste and never again
I've been spoiled rotten
Give me a glimpse and never again
I've been spoiled rotten
You can, you can, you can
Gimme gimme gimme gimme...

I want it all, all, all
I want it all
You can give it all to me

The last time I got paid
Is the first time I got paid
Cause everytime you get paid
You broke again

Who you bank with?

I hug that barbed wire fence
I find it makes no difference
I feel the warmth. Cheek to cheek
Cleaned the lens. It's you I see
Hey honey! That's an odd way to cry?
Magazine tears cut the diamonds in your eyes
Keep in mind what you desire
Keep in mind, cash burns like fire
