Kilo Kish

(She got a shiny new toy
Bite off the heads of the boys
She's playing quiet and coy
She'll bite you right to the core)
I bit the earth at her core
(Lock all the doors)
Now I want the 4 to the floor
(Forget the diamonds and pearls)
Tell me what you're looking for
(Tell me what you're looking for)
Tell me what you're looking for

Tell me what you are
Tell me what you are
Is it enough, baby?
Is it enough
My love, my love
Can you buy my love?
Now try my love, try my love
Now try my love

Already rang your phone
Where you at?
You take all kinds of girls
In the back
Electric eyes
Where you at
You ain't confessing to that
Undressing to that
Plastic paradise
Kill for the love
Need no choice
I need some more
Cellophane dreams of us
Lead me in lies
I'll eat them up

Tell me what you are
Tell me what you are
Is it enough, baby?
Is it enough
My love, my love
Can you buy my love?
Now try my love, try my love
Now try my love

All at once
All along
You and I could be there
All at once
All alone
You and I could be there
All at once
All along
You and I could be there
You and I could be there
You and I could be there

Tell me what you are
My love?
Come try my love
You could buy my love

Tell me what you are
Tell me what you are
Is it enough, baby?
Is it enough
My love, my love
Can you buy my love?
Now try my love, try my love
Now try my love

You and I
For tonight
What you want
I'll provide
Shall we dance
Or we can hide
You and I
Tonight...

You and I
It's all right
Can I try
All night
You and I
It's all right
Can I try
All night
