

Leaving?

Kilo Kish

Set aside my pride I'm leaving with you
(What's it gonna be?)
Tell me all your lies cuz I'm leaving with you
More than just one night I'm leaving with you
Before I change my mind
I'm leaving is it with you?
Got nothing better to do, but

Mm that's fine
Uh your place or mine
I don't really care about your rising sign
I don't give a damn cause your on my mind

Mm that's fine
Uh your place or mine
I don't really care about your rising sign
I don't give a damn cause your on my mind

We could walk home from the party
I didn't know anybody
Tip toe past your doorman lobby
I'm dark this is my hobby
Embarrassing myself
For a good time send help
Hoping we kiss and tell
And then I go home (What's it gonna be?)

(So what's it gonna be?)
(So are you coming with me?) What's it gonna be?
From the party (So?)
Nobody
Doorman lobby (Can you please make a decision?)
