

Thoughts On Love And Work

Kilo Kish

Lay back
And the stars look
Down at us
But we're too ashamed to look up

Though I lie awake
And I can't sleep
Look at all the time we're wasting
Punching these
Fucking endless keys
I'd take everyday
To be with you
While the world keeps feeding news
For us to taste

Breaking all the rules
For you

Moving so fast we forgot about us
So hard to breathe
And think of you
At the same time
Keep scrolling
Still my mind ain't shutting off
I can't remember last night
I don't want a love
Without understanding
It's enough
Just to love
Each other

I won't stop for strangers
Never
No way
No how
Won't do it
